

POULTRY WASTE MANAGEMENT INITIAL 9-HOUR EDUCATION

The Initial 9-Hour Education (I-9) consists of a one-day session that combines videos, instructor presentations, workbook exercises and Q&A sessions for a comprehensive learning experience.

Topics include:

- ◆ Regulations
- ◆ Environmental Background
- ◆ Understanding the Animal Waste Mgmt. Plan
- ◆ Poultry Litter Nutrient Management
- ◆ Soil & Litter Sampling and Spreader Calibration
- ◆ Phosphorus in Poultry Litter
- ◆ Conservation Practices
- ◆ Alternative Waste Mgmt Technologies
- ◆ Poultry Litter Commerce

When: 9:00 am November 14, 2017

Where: Indian Capital Tech Center, Stilwell

Lunch provided

To learn about other Poultry Waste Management Education opportunities visit:

POULTRYWASTE.OKSTATE.EDU

For more information &/or directions please contact PWME Coordinator Claude Bess at (580) 332-4100 or claudе.bess@okstate.edu.